

contents

December 15, 2013

arts

- 4 COVER STORY In his next bid for Oscar glory, Leonardo DiCaprio plays a modern-day Wall Street Caligula. Greed never felt so good, he tells Jonathan Dean
- 6 FILM The move from TV to the big screen has been a banana skin for many comedians. Will Harry Hill buck the trend, asks Ryan Gilbey
- 10 ART We must save Van Dyck's last self-portrait, agrees Waldemar Januszczak — but there's another gem we ought to buy, too
- 12 BOOKS Women writers rule in the historical-fiction charts, but men are on the rise, says Patricia Nicol
- 20 MUSIC An unexpected Christmas album confirms that, 40 years in, Nick Lowe just gets better with age. Garth Cartwright pays him a visit

reviews

- 8 FILM The latest episode in the Hobbit saga really is a stopgap, says Camilla Long. Thank the Lord for Cinema Paradiso
- 14 TELEVISION Grim but essential: Matt Rudd on ITV's Lucan
- 16 THEATRE Eek! American Psycho high-kicks its way onto the stage
- 18 THE CRITICAL LIST
Our pick of the arts
- 22 ON RECORD
The latest essential releases
- 41-71 TV & RADIO The best guide to the week's programmes and films

Cover: Leonardo DiCaprio
Photograph by Armando Gallo/Camera Press

books

- 31 COVER STORY Waldemar Januszczak compares a new biography of Lou Reed with the gentle performer he came to know
- 32 FILM Jonathan Dean on the films by Spielberg, Kubrick and Coppola that never made it to the big screen
- 34 BUSINESS The wildcatters who made billions from fracking in America. By Danny Fortson
- 36 HISTORY The building of the Trans-Siberian railway was one of man's most extraordinary feats, says James McConnachie
- 36 BIOGRAPHY Max Hastings is unnerved by the shocking personal life of a great war poet
- 30 THE SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLERS

my must-sees

Verity Rushworth Actress

She plays Velma Kelly in the Leicester Curve's new production of Chicago, until Jan 18

DANCE Drunk (Curve, Leicester, Jan 28, Feb 1; Bridewell, London EC4, Feb 5-Mar 1) The debut production for the newly launched McOnie Company — an intoxicating journey through some of history's greatest tipples.

THEATRE American Psycho (Almeida, London N1, until Jan 25) Matt Smith is truly inspired casting as the infamous Patrick Bateman. (See review, page 16.)

MUSIC Sara Mitra (Vortex Jazz Club, London N16, next Sun) Mitra has a really fresh-sounding voice: a great night full of Christmas classics.

THEATRE The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-time (right; Apollo, London W1, until Oct 25) Moving, clever, magical.

